

Field of Dreams:

KEY PLAYERS, STARS AND SUPERSTARS

The potential for the success of a practice is directly proportional to the effort put in by the team.

When the team is in a state of disharmony or dysfunction, everyone and everything is held back. When the team is coordinated, working cohesively toward a common set of goals, and they feel a sense of co-ownership, the practice can't help but thrive. In this high energy, interactive workshop, Cindy Ishimoto shares strategies for creating workplace harmony and improved morale leading to greater practice productivity and profitability.

Join us and reignite your passion and joy for the profession. Learn strategies for working effectively with others, how to set goals and achieve them, how attitude plays a role in success and how to self-motivate to increase your potential for success. Also covered are techniques to improve your consistency with finding, hiring and keeping great employees.

Learning Objectives:

- Learn enhanced effectiveness skills for accomplishing tasks by improving relationships with others
- Develop communication techniques for turning conflict into cooperation
- Understand the roles attitude, commitment, trust and respect play in success
- Explore how goal setting and problem solving skills increase efficiency
- Hone time management and delegation skills
- Boost your hiring IQ: finding keepers and hiring winners
- Illuminate the importance of job descriptions and growth conferences in creating peak performers
